- Affordable, expert support – each group webinar costs £10 per person* for approximately two hours of support, including a dedicated Q&A slot

About the presenter:

Steve Smith has almost fifteen years of experience teaching A Level Chemistry, mostly the AQA syllabus. He has also worked for many years as an A Level examiner for AQA and has used knowledge of the marking procedure and process to inform his students and help prepare them for their final exams. The A Level Chemistry masterclass series is an unmissable opportunity to learn from his experience and expertise, forming a vital component of your preparation for the final exams.
